Roots in the Blues Great American Music

Every “flavor” of American music from country to jazz has roots in the blues heard even today. The RJO promises a “tour de Force” performance of the many shades of blue, touching a variety of music styles.

Joining the RJO will be guest vocalists Trey Stone, Pat Esters, Carolyn Dolan, Lori Johnson, David Wells. Trey was inducted into the Rhythm and Blues Hall of Fame in 2015 and if you have heard him sing and play guitar you know why. His credits are extensive and has shared the stage with the RJO on several occasions. Pat, Lori, and David have also performed with us on our productions of “The Jazz Soul of Porgy and Bess”, and last year’s well received “A Gospel Christmas”.

Expect to hear the blues how it began, just guitar and voice. But, of course that is just the start as we explore the great big band interpretations of the blues by jazz greats Count Basie and Duke Ellington. From there it is off to the world of rock, funk, rhythm and blues, and hey how about a little country.

The Reno Jazz Orchestra is an eighteen-piece big band dedicated to keeping big band jazz vibrant and alive in northern Nevada. As a 501-c3 non-profit we do this through our performances throughout the year and our jazz education programs serving Washoe County schools. You can learn more about us by visiting our website www.renojazzorchestra.org.

Chuck Reider, Music Director

Chuck has been a professional trombonist for over forty years, starting his career in San Francisco where he received a Bachelor’s Degree in music from San Francisco State University. He moved to the Reno-Tahoe area in 1978 where he played his first casino gig at the Cal-Neva which featured Johnny Ray and a new upcoming comedian Jay Leno. As a showroom musician he performed with all the great entertainers from Frank Sinatra and Sammy Davis Jr. to Diana Ross and Willie Nelson. He has performed with the Reno Philharmonic since 1984 which included two performances with the great Pavarotti! He is a founding member of the Reno Jazz Orchestra and has been the Music Director since 2006. In 1995 Chuck received a Civil Engineering degree from UNR and worked for the Nevada Department of Transportation for 18 years, retiring as NDOT’s Chief Safety Engineer. Music is his passion and he is committed to the RJO’s Mission bringing our community world-class big band performances and motivating the next generation of jazz musicians through the RJO education program. Chuck has been married to his wife Candy for 28 years and has two sons, both recent UNR graduates.
